Analysis Report:

Although embracing a fundamental astrological structure traditionally implying frustration, stagnation and low energy, This Arrangement nevertheless shows a very positive and lucky result in its further astrological interpretation

Firstly, her husband was set up by the authority and was sentenced to 4 years in prison. Although there are still 2 prison years left, the woman definitely has the chance to help her husband released from prison earlier through legal actions

Secondly, her husband can be released from prison and regain freedom in October or November within this year after significant energy and effort dedication of his wife

Finally, her husband has already got a plan in prison, and may start the business of road construction, civil engineering or real estate development after prison release. Success can be expected by her husband in the above-mentioned business fields
